

Bicycle Urbanism Symposium - Program at a glance - Updated June 15, 2013

General Theme	Advocacy, Planning and Implementation in the Puget Sound	The Global Experience + Bicycle Cities of the Future	Promoting Bicycling	Rider Education / Crunching Numbers: Analyzing and Applying Cycling Data Panels	General Theme	Planning and Designing for Bicycling	Health and Safety / International Experience Implementing Bike Projects around the Globe	Accessibility, Inclusiveness and Amenities: Growing the Cycling Community	Crunching Numbers: Analyzing and Applying Cycling Data Papers
Session	A	B	C	D	Session	E	F	G	H
THURSDAY JUNE 20	ONE	Prioritizing Bicycle and Transit Connections in Seattle	Small, Cold, and Gold: Missoula, Montana's Intrepid Course to a Bike Future	#winningthewaronscars: How to tell a story that builds public support for investments in bicycling.	Education	THURSDAY JUNE 20	ONE	Business and Economy	Safety	Amenities (bike cages, bike & ride)
	TWO	Planning for all ages and abilities – if you build it, how to get people to ride and become a great bicycling city? (Seattle)	Cycling in Vancouver, BC: Perspectives from the municipal, regional, academic and consulting worlds	A guide to bike culture	Pedaling toward bicycle-friendly cities – what higher education can teach us		TWO		Health	Bike share (part one)	Data collection
	THREE	Do a little dance, make a little love: How Seattle bicycle advocates, City staff and elected officials work together to complete valuable bicycle projects and plans	Cycling Invitations: Cultivating Urban Public Life	Blogging About Bikes and Bambinos: Meeting the Needs of Family Riding	Bike Alliance and Bike Works Lifelong Education and Encouragement		THREE	Plans	Bicycle Technology and Multimodal Travel	Bike Share (part two)	Benefit cost analysis and Modeling
FRIDAY JUNE 21	FOUR	HEALing Suburban Communities by Planting the Seeds of Cycling: How the Six Suburban Communities are Transforming Their Residents' Futures through Active Transportation	What can North American cities learn about cycling infrastructure from Copenhagen?	Get Women Rolling: How (and How Not) to Reach and Motivate Women Riders	Counting Racks: Closing the gap between bike commuter amenities and demand	FRIDAY JUNE 21	FOUR	Street design	China	Inclusivity	Mapping
	FIVE	Agents of Change: how collaborative teams, sometimes unexpected, can generate the ideas and leadership necessary to create change in our cities	Testing, Testing, 1, 2, 3: Case studies of pilot bicycle infrastructure projects in Australian capital cities	Strong Campaigns: Winning More Bicycle Facilities in Your City	FHWA use of bicycle models		FIVE	Children's Hospital Bicycle Facility Workshop	International Experience	Promotion	Ridership/facility demand; technology
	SIX	When City Streets Serve As State Highways – Overcoming the barriers highways and major arterials present for biking in the urban setting with innovative design	Creating Bicycle Space in Cities of the Present and Future	BizCycle: The Roadmap and Reward for Bicycle-Friendly Businesses	Progress and Challenges in Developing Bicycle Traffic Monitoring Programs		SIX	Children's Hospital Bicycle Facility Bicycle Tour		Surveys	GPS

Panel Session

Workshop Session

Workshop and Ride Session

Paper Session