UWMC Cancer Library

Cancer is a challenging disease for many reasons. Patients and families often find that the more they learn about cancer and its treatments, the more they feel in control and the better they are able to manage. Knowledge about cancer may help you as you meet this challenge.

How We Can Help

UWMC Cancer Library

UWMC Cancer Library provides resources about cancer and its treatment. Our books, pamphlets and articles cover:

- Chemotherapy
- Radiation
- Specific Cancers
- Local Resources
- Living with Grief and Loss
- The Family As Caregiver
- Books For Children
- Inspirational Themes
- Personal Growth
- Relationships

Books, audiotapes, videotapes and a listing of other recommended resources are available.

Magazines and books are also available for your enjoyment.

Visit our Health Reference Center Computer Kiosk in the library. It offers a database of pamphlets, journal articles, and books with support and referral information.

How to Find the Library

The UWMC Cancer Library is in Room 7322 in the medical center's 7-SE nursing unit. Take the Cascade elevators to the 7th floor. Look for signs directing you to the Cancer Library. The library is always open.

Knowledge is Strength

Knowledge is Strength

We hope the library will meet your needs with resources that answer your questions and expand your knowledge. To best serve you, the library is open 24 hours a day and runs on the honor system.

- UWMC patients, family members and friends can check out materials. Follow the steps posted at the checkout station. Often, volunteers will be there to help you.
- If you would like to meet with a volunteer, or if you would like to volunteer to work in the library, please call the UWMC Cancer Library Volunteer Coordinator at (206) 598-7880.

You Can Help Too

This library was started with generous donations from the friends and family of John A. Cortner. Cancer Library resources are funded through their continued support and the contributions of people like you.

Your donations of time, money or books will help the library continue to grow and also expand the range of materials offered.
