RDA: Resource Description & Access

Developed by the Joint Steering Committee (JSC) to replace the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules, 2nd Edition Revised

Issued in 2010 as part of the RDA Toolkit, a subscription-based online product co-published by the American Library Association, Canadian Library Association, and Facet Publishing (www.rdatoolkit.org). Also available in loose-leaf format.

- A structure based on the conceptual models of FRBR (functional requirements for bibliographic data) and FRAD (functional requirements for authority data) to help catalog users find the information they need more easily

- A flexible framework for content description of digital resources that also serves the needs of libraries organizing traditional resources

- A better fit with emerging database technologies, enabling institutions to introduce efficiencies in data capture and storage retrievals
Chapter 1 of RDA as viewed in the RDA Toolkit
As you are probably aware, the three U.S. national libraries (Library of Congress, National Library of Medicine, and National Library of Agriculture) agreed to make a joint decision on whether or not to implement RDA, based on the results of a test of both RDA and the Web product. These libraries, along with 26 other formal test participants representing a wide variety of library types, carried out the test in the second half of 2010. As part of training their catalogers, the Library of Congress developed training materials for test participants and created the Library of Congress Policy Statements (LCPS) to document their policy decisions for LC staff to apply during the test to the options and alternative in RDA. All of this documentation is available from RDA Test website shown in the slide. The LC Policy Statements are also included in the RDA Toolkit and hyperlinked from within the text of RDA itself.

The results of the test have been analyzed and the three libraries recently announced that they will implement RDA no earlier than January 1, 2013, provided that a number of changes and rewrites to it are made and that the functionality of the RDA Toolkit is improved.
I worked from the list of changes compiled by the JSC and posted on its website. Note: this is not necessarily a complete list - just those identified during the RDA development process.

This presentation does not cover all of the changes from AACR2 to RDA, nor does it include most of the new instructions unique to RDA, nor many of the new MARC 21 bibliographic and authority format additions and changes made for RDA. I’ve selected the changes from AACR2 to RDA that I thought would be of most interest to a general audience.

For a list of MARC 21 changes for RDA, see: http://www.loc.gov/marc/RDAinMARC29.html and see the lists of changes as announced in the MARC 21 updates: http://www.loc.gov/marc/marcginf.html#naa

OCLC Technical Bulletin 260 comprises the OCLC-MARC Format Update 2011 and includes additional MARC changes for RDA.
DESCRIPTION
Identifying RDA Records

In MARC 21 bibliographic records:

- 040 subfield $e$ with value rda
- Leader/18 (Descriptive Cataloging Form) coded i if ISBD punctuation is included or # (blank) if ISBD punctuation is not followed or c if ISBD punctuation followed except that ISBD punctuation is not present at the end of a subfield. [Code a is used for AACR2 records].

18 - Descriptive cataloging form One-character alphanumeric code that indicates characteristics of the descriptive data in the record through reference to cataloging norms. Subfield $e$ (Description conventions) of field 040 (Cataloging Source) also contains information on the cataloging conventions used.

- Non-ISBD Descriptive portion of the record does not follow International Standard Bibliographic Description (ISBD) cataloging and punctuation provisions.

a - AACR 2 Descriptive portion of the record is formulated according to the description and punctuation provisions as incorporated into the Anglo-American Cataloguing Rules, 2nd Edition (AACR2) and its manuals.

c - ISBD punctuation omitted Descriptive portion of the record contains the punctuation provisions of ISBD, except ISBD punctuation is not present at the end of a subfield.

i - ISBD punctuation included Descriptive portion of the record contains the punctuation provisions of ISBD.

u - Unknown Institution receiving or sending data in Leader/18 cannot adequately determine the appropriate descriptive cataloging form used in the record. May be used in records converted from another metadata format.
OCLC has a webpage describing its policies for creating original RDA records and for upgrading or converting records to RDA: http://www.oclc.org/rda/policy.htm These protocols continue to apply until RDA is implemented officially by the three U.S. national libraries.
Each adjacent data element that requires square brackets is enclosed in its own set of square brackets.

Inaccuracies – Monographs

In AACR2 inaccuracies are transcribed followed either by [sic] or by i.e. and the correction within square brackets. Supply a missing letter or letters in square brackets.

In RDA, inaccuracies are transcribed as they appear on the source of information. If necessary, a note may be made correcting the inaccuracy, and the title as corrected may be recorded as a variant title if it is considered important for access. When transcribing the title proper of a serial or integrating resource, correct obvious typographic errors, and make a note giving the title as it appears on the source of information. In case of doubt about whether the spelling of a word is incorrect, transcribe the spelling as found. Record the title as it appears on the source of information as a variant title if it is considered to be important for access.

LCRI 21.30J. Titles of monographs corrected by "[i.e. ...]" and "[sic]" or by bracketing missing letters (cf. 1.0F1). When the "[i.e. ...]," "[sic]" or bracketed letter(s) technique is used, make two title added entries: a 246-derived one for the title in its uncorrected form, and one in its correct form.

12.1B7. For serials, if the title includes a date, name, number, etc., that varies from issue to issue, omit this date, name, number, etc., and replace it by the mark of omission, unless it occurs at the beginning of the title, in which case do not give the mark of omission.

The annual report of Governor ... (Title appears as: The annual report of Governor Rhodes. The name of the governor changes with each specific term of office)
Annual report not ... Annual report

2.3.1.4 Date, name, number, etc., that varies from issue to issue. If a title of a serial includes a date, name, number, etc., that varies from issue to issue, omit this date, name, number, etc. Use a mark of omission (...) to indicate such an omission.

In the first two examples, there is no difference between AACR2 and RDA. The third example illustrates the difference when a date, name, number, etc., occurs at the beginning of a serial title. The exception in AACR2 12.1B7 is not in RDA.
For each of these three new fields, there are closed vocabularies in RDA developed with the ONIX publishing community. Codes for each term can be used instead of or in addition to the term. Libraries do not have to use those specific terms in their OPACs; they can display them with their own replacement terms or with icons; or, they can use them only for filtering or limiting searches in conjunction with info in the Leader and controlled fields.

RDA 3.2. Media type (MARC tag 337) is a categorization reflecting the general type of intermediation device required to view, play, run, etc., the content of a resource. Examples: audio; computer; microform; unmediated; video

RDA 3.3. Carrier type (MARC tag 338) is a categorization reflecting the format of the storage medium and housing of a carrier. Examples: audio disc; online resource; microfiche; videocassette; volume

RDA 6.9. Content type (MARC tag 336) is a categorization reflecting the fundamental form of communication in which the content is expressed and the human sense through which it is intended to be perceived. For content expressed in the form of an image or images, content type also reflects the number of spatial dimensions in which the content is intended to be perceived and the perceived presence or absence of movement. Values: cartographic dataset; cartographic image; cartographic moving image; cartographic tactile three-dimensional form; cartographic three-dimensional form; computer dataset; computer program; notated movement; notated music; performed music; sounds; spoken word; still image; tactile image; tactile notated music; tactile text; tactile three-dimensional form; text; three-dimensional form; three-dimensional moving image; other; unspecified. Each value also has a MARC code established for it that can be used in 336 $b.
The GMD has been replaced in RDA by Media type (3.2), Carrier type (3.3), and Content type (6.9).

3.2. Media type (MARC tag 337) is a categorization reflecting the general type of intermediation device required to view, play, run, etc., the content of a resource. Each value also has a MARC code established for it that can be used in 337 $b.

3.3. Carrier type (MARC tag 338) is a categorization reflecting the format of the storage medium and housing of a carrier in combination with the type of intermediation device required to view, play, run, etc., the content of a resource. Each value also has a MARC code established for it that can be used in 338 $b.

Audio carriers: audio cartridge; audio cylinder; audio disc; audio roll; audiocassette; audiotape reel; sound-track reel

Computer carriers: computer card; computer chip cartridge; computer disc; computer disc cartridge; computer tape cartridge; computer tape cassette; computer tape reel; online resource

Other values established: other; unspecified

6.9. Content type (MARC tag 336) is a categorization reflecting the fundamental form of communication in which the content is expressed and the human sense through which it is intended to be perceived. For content expressed in the form of an image or images, content type also reflects the number of spatial dimensions in which the content is intended to be perceived and the perceived presence or absence of movement. Values: cartographic dataset; cartographic image; cartographic moving image; cartographic tactile image; cartographic tactile three-dimensional form; cartographic three-dimensional form; computer dataset; computer program; notated movement; notated music; performed music; sounds; spoken word; still image; tactile image; tactile notated music; tactile text; tactile three-dimensional form; text; three-dimensional form; three-dimensional moving image; two-dimensional moving image; other; unspecified. Each value also has a MARC code established for it that can be used in 336 $b.

Note: the source codes for these fields were changed from marcccontent, marccmedia, and marccarrier were changed to rdacontent, rdamedia, and rdacarrier in June 2010 (see MARC Technical Notice (June 18, 2010)).
Here is a book example. In AACR2 we didn’t use a GMD for some printed resources (books, scores, cartographic materials). In RDA, we do record the content type, media type, and carrier type for these resources.

AACR2 1.1D. Transcribe parallel titles in the order indicated by their sequence on, or by the layout of, the chief source of information. RDA 2.3.3.1 defines parallel title as the title proper in another language and/or script, but there is no restriction on sources for this information. 2.3.3.2 says to take parallel titles from any source within the resource.
Parallel Titles

AACR2 1.1D

246 31  $a Mezhdunarodnyï meteorologicheskii slovar’

246 31  $a Vocabulario meteorológico internacional

AACR2 1.1D2 gives instructions on how many parallel titles to record, and which ones.

In preparing a second-level description (see 1.0D2), give the first parallel title. Give any subsequent parallel title that is in English.

RDA doesn’t have the concept of first-level, second-level, and third-level of description.

AACR2 12.1E1 specifies that other title information is only recorded for continuing resources if it is considered to be important. It lists three categories where it is always considered important. RDA does not have this limitation, although in RDA other title information is not a core element.

12.1E1. Transcribe other title information as instructed in 1.1E if considered to be important. Always transcribe or supply other title information if it falls within one of the categories below.

- a) If an acronym or initialism of the title appears in the chief source of information with the full form of the title, transcribe the acronym or initialism as other title information.
- b) If a statement of responsibility or the name of a publisher, distributor, etc., is an integral part of the other title information, transcribe it as such (see 1.1E4).
- c) If the title proper consists solely of the name of a corporate body, conference, etc., supply a brief addition in the language of the title proper as other title information to explain the title (see 1.1E6).

2.3.4.3 Record other title information appearing on the same source of information as the title proper applying the basic instructions on recording titles given under 2.3.1.

LCPS for 2.3.4.3: CORE ELEMENT FOR LC
1.1E6. If the title proper needs explanation, supply a brief addition as other title information, in the language of the title proper. 12.1E1 c) If the title proper consists solely of the name of a corporate body, conference, etc., supply a brief addition in the language of the title proper as other title information to explain the title (see 1.1E6).

There is no equivalent in RDA, as it goes against the principle of representation. However, other title information may be supplied for cartographic resources (AACR2 3.1E2, RDA 2.3.4.5) and moving image resources (AACR2 7.1E2, RDA 2.3.4.6).
Other Title Information May Still Be Supplied for Cartographic & Moving Image Resources

RDA does allow supplying other title information for cartographic resources (AACR2 3.1E2, RDA 2.3.4.5) and moving image resources (AACR2 7.1E2, RDA 2.3.4.6).

3.1E2. If the title proper does not include an indication of the geographic area covered by the item and if the other title information does not include such an indication or if there is no other title information, supply, as other title information, a word or brief phrase indicating the area covered.

2.3.4.5 If the title proper of a cartographic resource does not include an indication of the geographic area covered and/or the subject portrayed, and
   a) the other title information does not include such an indication or
   b) there is no other title information supply as other title information a word or brief phrase indicating the area covered and, if applicable, the subject portrayed. Indicate that the information was taken from a source outside the resource itself as instructed under 2.2.4.

7.1E2. If the item is a trailer containing extracts from a larger film, add [trailer] as other title information.
   Annie Hall [GMD] : [trailer]

2.3.4.6 If the resource is a trailer containing extracts from a larger moving image resource, and the title proper does not indicate this, supply trailer as other title information. Indicate that the information was taken from a source outside the resource itself as instructed under 2.2.4.

Note: a relationship designator is shown in the 110 of the RDA example but will be discussed later on in the presentation.
AACR2 1.1A2 says that a statement of responsibility taken from outside the chief source of information must be enclosed in square brackets. In RDA, only a statement of responsibility taken from a source outside the resource itself will be enclosed in square brackets (2.2.4).

2.4.2.2 Take statements of responsibility relating to title proper from the following sources (in order of preference):
   a) the same source as the title proper (see 2.3.2.2)
   b) another source within the resource itself (see 2.2.2)
   c) one of the other sources of information specified under 2.2.4.

2.2.4 If information required to identify the resource does not appear on a source forming part of the resource itself (see 2.2.2.1), take it from one of the following sources (in order of preference):
   a) accompanying material (e.g., a leaflet, an "about" file)
   b) a container that is not issued as part of the resource itself (e.g., a box case)
   c) other published descriptions of the resource
   d) any other available source (e.g., a reference source).

If information taken from a source outside the resource itself is supplied in any of the elements listed below, indicate that fact either by means of a note or by some other means (e.g., through coding or the use of square brackets).

Statement of responsibility
   Statement of responsibility relating to title proper
   Parallel statement of responsibility relating to title proper

OLA Annual Conference 4/25/2012
1.1F5. If a single statement of responsibility names more than three persons or corporate bodies performing the same function, or with the same degree of responsibility, omit all but the first of each group of such persons or bodies. Indicate the omission by the mark of omission (…) and add et al. (or its equivalent in a nonroman script) in square brackets.

In RDA there is no such limitation:

2.4.1.5. Record a statement of responsibility naming more than one person, etc., as a single statement regardless of whether the persons, families, or corporate bodies named in it perform the same function or different functions.

Note: in RDA, the rule of three no longer applies to the naming of works. In RDA, this work would be named using the access point for the first named creator followed by the title proper of the work, because there is no indication of principal responsibility. Instead of a 700 added entry for Markey in AACR2, Markey’s access point would be given in a 100 field in RDA, since he is the first named creator and no principal responsibility is indicated in the statement of responsibility.
2.4.1.5. Record a statement of responsibility naming more than one person, etc., as a single statement regardless of whether the persons, families, or corporate bodies named in it perform the same function or different functions.

Optional Omission

If a single statement of responsibility names more than three persons, families, or corporate bodies performing the same function, or with the same degree of responsibility, omit all but the first of each group of such persons, families, or bodies. Indicate the omission by summarizing what has been omitted in the language and script preferred by the agency preparing the description. Indicate that the summary was taken from a source outside the resource itself as instructed under 2.2.4.

2.2.4 If information taken from a source outside the resource itself is supplied in any of the elements listed below, indicate that fact either by means of a note or by some other means (e.g., through coding or the use of square brackets).

1.1F7. Include titles and abbreviations of titles of nobility, address, honour, and distinction, initials of societies, qualifications, date(s) of founding, mottoes, etc., in statements of responsibility if:

a) such data are necessary grammatically

b) the omission would leave only a person’s given name or surname

c) the title is necessary to identify a person

... / by Mrs. Charles H. Gibson

... / Anne Finch, Countess of Winchilsea
... / by Sir Richard Acland

Otherwise, omit all such data from statements of responsibility. Do not use the mark of omission.

RDA 2.4.1.4. Transcribe a statement of responsibility in the form in which it appears on the source of information. Apply the general guidelines on transcription given under 1.7.

Optional Omission

Abridge a statement of responsibility only if it can be abridged without loss of essential information. Do not use a mark of omission (...) to indicate such an omission. Always record the first name appearing in the statement. When omitting names from a statement of responsibility naming more than one person, etc., apply the instructions given under 2.4.1.5.

LC Policy Statement 2.4.1.4: LC practice for Optional omission: Generally do not abridge a statement of responsibility.
1.1F12. Treat a noun phrase occurring in conjunction with a statement of responsibility as other title information if it is indicative of the nature of the work.

Characters from Dickens [GMD] : dramatised adaptations / by Barry Campbell

If the noun or noun phrase is indicative of the role of the person(s) or body (bodies) named in the statement of responsibility rather than of the nature of the work, treat it as part of the statement of responsibility.

Roman Britain [GMD] / research and text by Colin Barham

In case of doubt, treat the noun or noun phrase as part of the statement of responsibility.

2.4.1.8 If a noun or noun phrase occurs with a statement of responsibility, treat the noun or noun phrase as part of the statement of responsibility.

AACR2 C.2B1. Substitute arabic numerals for roman in the following areas and elements of the bibliographic description: a) in an edition statement

AACR2 C.3B1. Substitute arabic numerals for numbers expressed as words in the following areas and elements of the bibliographic description: a) in an edition statement

RDA 2.5.1.4. Transcribe an edition statement as it appears on the source of information. Apply the general guidelines on transcription given under 1.7.

RDA B.4. For transcribed elements, use only those abbreviations found in the sources of information for the element.

RDA 1.8.1. When recording numbers expressed as numerals or as words in a transcribed element, transcribe them in the form in which they appear on the source of information. Apply the general guidelines on transcription (see 1.7), as applicable.

Since edition statement is not listed in 1.8.1, none of the special rules on recording numbers in 1.8.2-1.8.5 apply, so no substitutions will be made in edition statements.

In RDA, inaccuracies are transcribed as they appear on the source of information. If necessary, a note may be made correcting the inaccuracy. In case of doubt about whether the spelling of a word is incorrect, transcribe the spelling as found.

LCRI 1.2B4. LC practice: Do not apply this optional rule to any case of merely supposed differences in issues that might make them different editions. Apply the option for manifest differences where the catalog records would otherwise show exactly the same information in the areas beginning with the title and statement of responsibility area and ending with the series area.

LC/PCC practice for updating loose-leafs: Apply the option if the main entry and/or title proper of a resource being cataloged would be the same as that of the resource it continues.

There is no equivalent in RDA to this AACR2 rule, but information required to identify the resource may be supplied for the edition statement (RDA 2.2.4) and therefore it could be given in square brackets.

Publication Information

Place of publication, publisher's name, and date of publication are core elements for published resources. Therefore, a date of publication or probable date of publication or date of publication not identified must always be recorded in RDA.

Copyright date is a separate element in RDA. It does not substitute for a publication date. Copyright date is a core element if neither the date of publication nor the date of distribution is identified.

If more than one place of publication or publisher’s name appears on the source of information, only the first recorded is required.

Because distribution elements become core elements if the equivalent publication element is not identified, catalogers will likely want to supply probable information for the publication elements whenever possible to avoid having to supply distribution and/or manufacture information.

MARC Proposal No. 2011-03 proposed adding a new 2XX field to the Bibliographic format for Date of copyright notice. This proposal was folded into Proposal No. 2011-02. A new field 264 was approved with a second indicator value 3 for copyright date and a subfield to hold the copyright date. Until this new field is implemented, copyright date will continue to be recorded in subfield $c$ of field 260 along with dates of publication and distribution.

1.4D6. If the name of the publisher, distributor, etc., is unknown, give s.n. (sine nomine) or its equivalent in a nonroman script.

2.8.2.6. If neither a known nor a probable local place or country, state, province, etc., of publication can be determined, record Place of publication not identified.

2.8.4.7. For a resource in a published form, if no publisher is named within the resource itself, and the publisher cannot be identified from other sources as specified under 2.2.4, record publisher not identified.

Note: in the second example, the place of publication appears on the resource with a space between the initials of the province: B. C.

Note: the examples show in this slide are not complete or exhaustive; if any publication element is not identified and distribution information is known, that information will be given as well. The examples above would be given in the form shown only if no information about distribution or manufacture were available.

LC Policy Statement 2.8.2.6: LC practice: Supply a probable place of publication if possible rather than give “[Place of publication not identified]” and then give place of distribution or of manufacture.
Because distribution elements become core elements if the equivalent publication element is not identified, catalogers will likely want to supply probable information for the publication elements whenever possible to avoid having to supply distribution and/or manufacture information.

MARC Proposal No. 2011-02 proposed two options to allow for separate statements for production, publication, distribution and manufacture in the Bibliographic format. Option 1 to define one repeatable field 264 with a second indicator that designates the function being recorded in the field was approved by MARBI. (See later slide for more detail and examples)
These two examples show giving a found place of distribution and a probable place of distribution when a place of publication could not be identified.

For the first, you might have been able to give “[United States?]” as a probable place of publication and then you wouldn’t have had to give “Seattle” as the place of distribution.

You could supply the name of the distributor in both of these examples, but this would be going above the core requirements. LC is recommending that LC RDA testers give the full distribution statement if they are giving one of the distribution sub-elements.
These two examples show giving the distributor’s name as a “Core if” element.

Note also in the second example the ISBD change (as of the consolidated edition) to use separate sets of square brackets for each part of the statement.

You could supply the place of distribution in the first example, but this would be going beyond the core requirements. However, in order to avoid confusion as seen in the first example (where it looks like Chicago is also the place of distribution), LC is recommending that LC RDA testers give the full distribution statement if they are giving one of the distribution sub-elements.

You could supply the second place of distribution in the second example, but this would be going beyond the core requirements.
Examples: date of distribution

260 $a Omaha, Nebraska : $b Means Pub. Co., $c [date of publication not identified], 2009.
   On title page: Means Pub. Co., Omaha, Nebraska
   On title page verso: 2009 distribution

260 $a [United States] : $b Rand McNally, $c [date of publication not identified], 2010.
   On map panel: Published by Rand McNally; distributed in the U.S. by WM Services, 2010.

These examples show that unfortunately, it isn’t possible in MARC to identify a date of distribution as a date of distribution (no separate subfield exists).

Also note in the second example that supplying a known country as a probable place of publication means that you don’t need to give a Place of distribution.
Manufacture Information

Place of manufacture is a core element for a resource in a published form if neither a place of publication nor a place of distribution is identified. Manufacturer's name is a core element for a resource in a published form if neither a publisher nor a distributor is identified. Date of manufacture is a core element for a resource in a published form if neither the date of publication, the date of distribution, nor the copyright date is identified.

If more than one place of manufacture or manufacturer name appears on the source of information, only the first recorded is required.
This example shows the Place of manufacture in subfield $e$ because the Place of publication could not be identified and there was no distribution information on the resource.
These two examples show giving the Manufacturer’s name because the publisher is not identified. The manufacturer’s name is given in the 260 subfield $f$. In the second example, the Place of manufacture is given in subfield $e$ because the Place of publication is not identified.

In RDA, copyright date is a separate element, as are date of production, date of publication, date of distribution, and date of manufacture. Copyright date is a core element if neither the date of publication nor the date of distribution is identified.

2.11.1.3. Recording Copyright Dates

Record copyright dates applying the general guidelines on numbers expressed as numerals or as words given under 1.8. Precede the date by the copyright symbol (©) or the phonogram symbol (℗), or by copyright or phonogram if the appropriate symbol cannot be reproduced.

In the second two examples in this slide, the copyright date is not required because a probable date of publication has been supplied.

LC Policy Statement 2.8.6.6: LC practice: Supply a probable date of publication if possible, using the guidelines below, rather than give “[date of publication not identified]” and then the date of distribution, manufacture, or copyright date as applicable.

LC Policy Statement 2.11: LC practice for Core element: Always give a copyright date if found on the resource. Generally ignore copyright renewal dates for works first copyrighted before 1978. If the copyright dates vary, give the latest copyright date.

What the RDA MARC record will look like will depend on whether a library goes beyond the core element/core if requirements. You would only include the copyright date as in the examples in this slide, if you were going beyond the “core if” requirement for copyright date.

2.10.6. Date of Manufacture. Date of manufacture is a core element for a resource in a published form if neither the date of publication, the date of distribution, nor the copyright date is identified.

If a date of publication is supplied, as in the first example in the slide, then the date of manufacture is not required. In the second example in the slide, the date of manufacture is core and required because there is not date of publication, distribution, or copyright. The place of manufacture and name of manufacturer are not required in the second example because a place of publication and name of publisher are present. In both RDA examples, both places of publication have been recorded, but only the first is required as a core element.
These two examples show giving the Date of manufacture in 260 subfield $g$ as a “Core if” element. In these situations, Publication and distribution information were not on the resource.

However, the advice for both Place of ... and Date of ... information would be to give a probable place of publication and a probable date of publication whenever possible to avoid needing to give any of the Core if elements we’ve just spent many minutes considering. Also, if catalogers do need to give any distribution information or manufacture information, it might be easier to give complete distribution statements or complete manufacture statements in the 260 field because it is confusing to give only one or two of the pieces of each statement.

1.5B1. Record the extent of the item by giving the number of physical units in arabic numerals and the specific material designation as instructed in subrule .5B in the chapter dealing with the type of material to which the item belongs.

1.5B2. Describe a single-part printed text item as instructed in 2.5B.

3.4.1.1. Extent is the number and type of units and/or subunits making up a resource. A unit is a physical or logical constituent of a resource (e.g., a volume, audiocassette, film reel, a map, a digital file). A subunit is a physical or logical subdivision of a unit (e.g., a page of a volume, a frame of a microfiche, a record in a digital file).

3.4.1.3. Record the extent of the resource by giving the number of units and an appropriate term for the type of carrier as listed under 3.3.1.3. Record the term in the singular or plural, as applicable. (For instructions on using other terms to designate the type of unit see 3.4.1.5.) If the resource consists of more than one type of carrier, record the number of each applicable type. Specify the number of subunits, if applicable, as instructed under 3.4.1.7-3.4.1.9.

If the carrier type or types applicable to the resource being described cannot be readily ascertained, record unspecified.
3.4.1.5 Other Terms to Designate the Type of Unit

Use a term in common usage (including a trade name, if applicable) to designate the type of unit:

a) if the carrier is in a newly developed format that is not yet covered in the list under 3.3.1.3

b) if none of the terms listed under 3.3.1.3 is appropriate or

c) as an alternative to a term listed under 3.3.1.3, if preferred by the agency preparing the description.

audio disc or CD
computer disc or CD-ROM; DVD-ROM; Photo CD videodisc or DVD
In RDA we don’t abbreviate terms used in extent. Words like “pages” and “volume” are spelled out in full.

It’s not completely clear at this time if the example in RDA shown in this slide of xvii, 323 pages actually follows the instruction in 3.4.5.2 to “Record the last numbered page, leaf, or column in each sequence and follow it with the appropriate term.” It’s possible that this example should actually be xvii pages, 323 pages. However there are numerous other examples in RDA throughout 3.4.5 that do not have a term following each numbered sequence.
3.4.5 Extent of Text

3.4.5.3 Unnumbered Pages, Leaves, or Columns

If the resource consists entirely of unnumbered pages, leaves, or columns, record the number of pages, leaves, or columns using one of the following methods:

a) Record the exact number of pages, leaves, or columns, if readily ascertainable.

93 unnumbered pages

b) If the number is not readily ascertainable, record an estimated number of pages, leaves, or columns preceded by approximately.

c) Record 1 volume (unpaged).

3.4.5.3 Unnumbered Pages, Leaves, or Columns

When recording a sequence of unnumbered pages, etc., record:

a) the exact number (if the number is readily ascertainable) followed by unnumbered pages, etc.

or

b) an estimated number preceded by approximately

or

c) unnumbered sequence of pages, etc.

3.4.5.5 Misleading Numbering

If the numbering on the last page, leaf, or column of a sequence does not represent the total number of pages, leaves, or columns in that sequence, let it stand uncorrected unless it gives a completely false impression of the extent of the resource (e.g., when only alternate pages are numbered or when the number on the last page, leaf, or column of the sequence is misprinted).

When correcting misleading numbering, record the numbering as it appears on the last page or leaf followed by that is and the correct number.

Supply corrections in such cases in square brackets.

3.4.5.8 Complicated or Irregular Paging, Etc.

a) Record the total number of pages, leaves, or columns (excluding those that are blank or contain advertising or other inessential matter) followed by in various pagings, in various foliations, or in various numberings, as appropriate.

1000 pages in various pagings
256 leaves in various foliations
1283 columns in various numberings

b) Record the number of pages, leaves, or columns in the main sequences of the pagination and add the total number of the remaining variously numbered or unnumbered sequences.

366 pages, 98 pages, 99 unnumbered pages

c) Record 1 volume (various pagings).

3.5 Dimensions

3.5.1.3 Recording Dimensions

Unless instructed otherwise, record dimensions in centimetres to the next whole centimetre up, using the metric symbol cm (e.g., if the height measures 17.2 centimetres, record 18 cm).

Alternative

Record dimensions in the system of measure preferred by the agency preparing the description. Abbreviate terms for units of measurement as instructed in appendix B (B.5.1), as applicable.

In AACR2, metric units are considered abbreviations and are followed by a full stop (e.g., cm.). In RDA, they are treated as symbols and are not followed by a full stop (e.g., cm). Note: there will still be times when a full stop follows a metric unit because it is the ISBD full stop preceding the next area.

In AACR2, the system of measurement used to record dimensions varies depending on the type of resource. In RDA, metric units are used, although there is an alternative to use the system of measure preferred by the agency preparing the description (see RDA 3.5.1.3).

LCPS for 3.5.1.3: LC practice for Alternative: Use inches for discs (RDA 3.5.1.4.4); otherwise, follow the RDA instruction as written.

LCPS for 1.7.1: Field 300. Field 300 either ends in no punctuation or ends in a right parenthesis when the last element of the field is a parenthetical qualifier. When a record has a 490 field, insure that field 300 ends in a period.
7.15 Illustrative Content

7.15.1.3 Recording Illustrative Content

If the resource contains illustrative content, record illustration or illustrations, as appropriate. Tables containing only words and/or numbers are not considered as illustrative content. Disregard illustrated title pages, etc., and minor illustrations.

Alternative

Record the type of illustrative content in place of or in addition to the term illustration or illustrations, if it is considered to be important for identification or selection, using one or more appropriate terms from the list below.

RDA 7.15.1.4 says: Record details of the illustrative content if they are considered to be important for identification or selection.

Second example: Carrier type in RDA (3.3) is different from AACR2 SMD; abbreviations are still used for durations (B.5.3); in RDA the terms used for the configuration of playback channels (3.16.8) are not abbreviations: mono; stereo; quadraphonic; surround. In AACR2 6.5C7 Number of sound channels, there were only three terms: mono.; stereo.; quad. Note: For the RDA test, LC will continue to give disc dimensions in inches (LCPS for 3.5.1.3). If an agency decided to apply 3.4.1.5 c) they could say 1 CD or 1 compact disc instead of 1 audio disc.

Do not capitalize a term that is part of the numbering within a series (see 2.12.9) or subseries (see 2.12.17) unless the guidelines given under A.10–A.55 applicable to the language involved require capitalization. Capitalize other words and alphabetic devices according to the usage on the resource.

1.8.2. Record numerals in the form preferred by the agency creating the data, unless the substitution would make the numbering less clear.

Alternatives
Record numerals in the form in which they appear on the source of information. RDA Test: Yes, apply the alternative – record numerals in form in which they appear.
Record the numerals in the form in which they appear on the source. Add the equivalent numerals in the form preferred by the agency creating the data, indicating that the information was taken from a source outside the resource itself as instructed under 2.2.4. RDA Test: No, not both as appear and form preferred by agency.

1.8.3. Substitute numerals for numbers expressed as words.
In AACR2 inaccuracies are transcribed followed either by [sic] or by i.e. and the correction within square brackets. Supply a missing letter or letters in square brackets. In RDA, inaccuracies are transcribed as they appear on the source of information. If necessary, a note may be made correcting the inaccuracy. In case of doubt about whether the spelling of a word is incorrect, transcribe the spelling as found.

AACR2 1.6G1
If the numbering that appears on the item is known to be incorrect, transcribe it as found and add the correct numbering in square brackets.

Kieler historische Studien ; Bd. 24 [i.e. 25]

RDA 2.12.9.3
Record the numbering of the resource within the series as it appears on the source of information. Apply the general guidelines on transcription given under 1.7 and the general guidelines on numbers expressed as numerals or as words given under 1.8. If the numbering that appears on the source of information is known to be incorrect, transcribe it as it appears. Make a note giving the correct numbering (see 2.20.11.4).

2.20.11.4
Make a note giving the correct numbering within a series or subseries if the numbering transcribed from the source of information is known to be incorrect (see 2.12.9.3).

The ISSN subfield in MARC field 490 has been made repeatable to accommodate the RDA instruction.
6.4. Date of work is a core element when needed to differentiate a work from another work with the same title or from the name of a person, family, or corporate body.

6.4.1.1. Date of work is the earliest date associated with a work.

Date of work may be the date the work was created or the date the work was first published or released.

IMPORTANT TO NOTE:

0.6.3 Section 2: Recording Attributes of Work and Expression

If the preferred title for a work is the same as or similar to a title for a different work, or to a name for a person, family, or corporate body, record as many of the additional identifying elements listed below as necessary to differentiate them. Record the elements either as additions to the access point representing the work, as separate elements, or as both.

- Form of work
- Date of work
- Place of origin of the work
- Other distinguishing characteristic of the work

[My emphasis added above; although these separate elements can be recorded in both bibliographic or authority records, recording them in the access point is sufficient to satisfy the core requirements]

LCPS for 0.6.3: LC practice: When identifying (1) a musical work with a title that is not distinctive or (2) recording an element to differentiate one work or expression from another work or expression or from a name for a person, family, or corporate body, always add the element to the access point.
In this example, the date of creation is needed in the access point to distinguish one motion picture with the same title as others. Including the 046 in the bibliographic record is not required, since the date has been recorded as part of the authorized access point for the work, and that satisfies the core element requirement.
In this example, dates of creation of the two films on this DVD are recorded in two separate 046s, even though they are not needed to distinguish the works from any others with the same titles.
6.11 Language of Expression

CORE ELEMENT

Language of expression is a core element when needed to differentiate an expression of a work from another expression of the same work.

6.11.1.3 Recording Language of Expression

Record the language or languages of the expression using an appropriate term or terms in the language preferred by the agency creating the data. Select terms from a standard list of names of languages, if available.

If the expression involves more than one language, follow the additional instructions given under 6.11.1.4.

6.11.1.4 Expressions Involving More Than One Language

If a single expression of a work involves more than one language, record each of the languages.

377 – Associated Language

First Indicator Undefined
- Undefined

Second Indicator Source of code
- MARC language code
7 - Source specified in subfield $2

$a - Language code (R)
$l - Language term (R)
$2 - Source (NR)

Note: this is not a use of the Bibliographic format known in the North American context; bibliographic records currently can include attributes of works and expressions, but they also provide manifestation-level information that would not be present in the context of an expression-only record. In the North American context, we currently use authority records to represent expressions.
6.3. Form of work is a core element when needed to differentiate a work from another work with the same title or from the name of a person, family, or corporate body.

6.3.1. Form of work is a class or genre to which a work belongs.

6.6. Other distinguishing characteristic of the work is a core element when needed to differentiate a work from another work with the same title or from the name of a person, family, or corporate body.

6.6.1. Other distinguishing characteristic of the work is a characteristic other than form of work, date of work, or place of origin of the work that serves to differentiate a work from another work with the same title or from the name of a person, family, or corporate body.

   Geological Survey (South Africa) Issuing body of a work titled Bulletin. There are other works with this title.

   Philadelphia Museum of Art Owner of a Jan van Eyck painting titled Saint Francis receiving the stigmata. There are other Van Eyck paintings with same title.

   Douglas Surname of the director of a 1965 motion picture titled Harlow. There is another film produced in 1965 with the same title.

0.6.3 Section 2: Recording Attributes of Work and Expression

If the preferred title for a work is the same as or similar to a title for a different work, or to a name for a person, family, or corporate body, record as many of the additional identifying elements listed below as necessary to differentiate them. Record the elements either as additions to the access point representing the work, as separate elements, or as both.

Form of work; Date of work; Place of origin of work; Other distinguishing characteristic of the work

[My emphasis added above; although these separate elements can be recorded in both bibliographic or authority records, recording them in the access point is sufficient to satisfy the core requirements].

LCPS for 0.6.3: LC practice: When identifying (1) a musical work with a title that is not distinctive or (2) recording an element to differentiate one work or expression from another work or expression or from a name for a person, family, or corporate body, always add the element to the access point.
In this example, form of work is a core element because it is needed to distinguish one work with the same title as others. The separate element has been recorded in field 380, but including the form of work in the access point is sufficient to satisfy the core element requirements for that element. The same is true for the date of work. Although 046 for date of work has also been included in this record, recording it in the access point is sufficient.

0.6.3 Section 2

If the preferred title for a work is the same as or similar to a title for a different work, or to a name for a person, family, or corporate body, record as many of the additional identifying elements listed below as necessary to differentiate them. Record the elements either as additions to the access point representing the work, as separate elements, or as both.

LCPS for 0.6.3: LC practice: When identifying (1) a musical work with a title that is not distinctive or (2) recording an element to differentiate one work or expression from another work or expression or from a name for a person, family, or corporate body, always add the element to the access point.
In this example, form of work has been recorded even though it is not needed to distinguish this work from others. In this example, the source of the term used has been identified in subfield $2.$
This example shows the use of fields 046, 380, and 381. Date of work, form of work, and other distinguishing characteristic of the work are core elements because they are needed to distinguish this work from another with the same title. Including the elements in the authorized access point satisfies the core element requirements, but they may also be recorded as separate elements like here.
6.15 Medium of performance is a core element when needed to differentiate a musical work from another work with the same title. It may also be a core element when identifying a musical work with a title that is not distinctive.

6.15.1.1 Medium of performance is instrument, instruments, voice, voices, etc., for which a musical work was originally conceived.

6.16 Numeric designation is a core element when needed to differentiate a musical work from another work with the same title. It may also be a core element when identifying a musical work with a title that is not distinctive.

6.16.1.1 A numeric designation of a musical work is a serial number, opus number, or thematic index number assigned to a musical work by a composer, publisher, or a musicologist.

6.17 Key is a core element when needed to differentiate a musical work from another work with the same title. It may also be a core element when identifying a musical work with a title that is not distinctive.

6.17.1.1 Key is the set of pitch relationships that establishes the tonal centre, or principal tonal centre, of a musical work. Key is designated by its pitch name and its mode, when it is major or minor.

0.6.3 Section 2: Recording Attributes of Work and Expression
When identifying a musical work with a title that is not distinctive, record as many of the following elements as are applicable. For musical works with distinctive titles, record as many of the following elements as necessary to differentiate the work from others with the same title. Record the elements either as additions to the access point representing the work, as separate elements, or as both.

- Medium of performance
- Numeric designation of a musical work
- Key

LCPS for 0.6.3: LC practice: When identifying (1) a musical work with a title that is not distinctive or (2) recording an element to differentiate one work or expression from another work or expression or from a name for a person, family, or corporate body, always add the element to the access point.
Medium of performance, numeric designation, and key recorded to distinguish one work by Telemann with the collective title Sonatas from others with the same title. Recording these elements as part of the access point for the work is sufficient, but optionally they may also be included in a bibliographic or authority record. Note in this case the presence of two 382s for medium of performance, since the score is actually for two different mediums of performance.

LCPS for 0.6.3: LC practice: When identifying (1) a musical work with a title that is not distinctive or (2) recording an element to differentiate one work or expression from another work or expression or from a name for a person, family, or corporate body, always add the element to the access point.
