

Education:

- University of Washington, Seattle – Ph.D., History, 2007.
Dissertation: "Securing the Sound: The Evolution of Civilian-Military Relations in the Puget Sound Region, 1891-1984"
Committee: John M. Findlay (Chair), James N. Gregory, Gail Lee Dubrow
Fields: American West, Twentieth-Century United States, U.S. Foreign Relations, Public History
- University of Washington – M.A., History, 2001
- University of Washington – B.A., History, 1998
- University of Limerick, Ireland – B.A., Business, 1989

Teaching Experience:

- Adjunct faculty, University of Washington, Seattle, WA, 2004 – 2009. Classes taught:
 - Survey History of the United States
 - History of the United States since 1865
 - History of Washington and the Pacific Northwest, traditional classroom and online formats
 - History of the United States since 1940
 - History of U.S. Foreign Relations since 1900
 - The United States and Vietnam
 - Transnational Connections: A Global History of U.S. Immigration
 - A Region Shaped by War: World War II and the American West, undergraduate research seminar
 - The Crisis of War: World War II and American Cities, undergraduate research seminar
 - The Mobilized Metropolis: Relations between the Military, Defense Industries and American Cities, 1890-1990, undergraduate research seminar
 - History of the African American Civil Rights Movement.
- Adjunct instructor, Bellevue College, Bellevue, WA, 2009. Classes:
 - History of Civilization: Contemporary World
 - History of the U.S. since the 1890s
- Adjunct instructor, North Seattle Community College, Seattle, WA, 2004 – 2009. Classes:
 - History of the United States to 1877
 - History of the United States since 1865, traditional classroom and online formats
 - U.S. Environmental History
 - History of the Pacific Northwest
- Adjunct instructor, Highline Community College, Des Moines, WA, Summer 2009. Classes:
 - Pacific Northwest History (online class)
- Adjunct instructor, Everett Community College, Everett, WA, Spring 2009. Classes:
 - History of the United States since 1920
- Adjunct instructor, Shoreline Community College, Shoreline, WA, Fall 2006. Classes:
 - History of the United States since 1877
- Teaching Assistant, Department of History, University of Washington, 2001 – 2004
- Reader/Grader, Department of History, University of Washington, 2000.

Other Employment:

- Contract researcher, National Park Service, Seattle, WA, 2006. I researched and co-authored the statement of historic significance for the nomination of the "B" Reactor at the Department of Energy's Hanford, WA site as a National Historic Landmark.
- Research and Editorial Assistant, Professor Gail Dubrow, Department of Urban Planning and Development, University of Washington, 2001 – 2004. I provided research, writing, and editorial assistance on various reports and manuscripts related to Asian American and labor history under contract for the National Park Service and local government agencies.

- Research Assistant and Mangels Fellow, Museum of History and Industry – Seattle, WA, 2000 – 2001. I conducted research into future exhibits, which included searching for artifacts and providing a narrative framework for new exhibits.

Peer-Reviewed Publications:

- “Puget Sound’s Security Codependency and Western Cold War Histories, 1950-1990.” Article manuscript under revision for resubmission to Pacific Historical Review.
- “Confronting the U.S. Navy at Bangor, 1973-1982,” Pacific Northwest Quarterly 95 (Summer 2004): 130-139.

Book Reviews:

- Review of Earl Pomeroy, The American Far West in the 20th Century (New Haven: Yale University Press, 2008), in Pacific Northwest Quarterly, 100 (Spring 2009).
- Review of Carlos A. Schwantes and James P. Ronda, The West the Railroads Made (Seattle: University of Washington Press, 2008), in Pacific Northwest Quarterly, 100 (Winter 2008/2009).
- Review of Robert E. Ficken, Washington State: The Inaugural Decade, 1889-1899 (Pullman, WA: Washington State University Press, 2007), in Pacific Northwest Quarterly 99 (Spring 2008).
- Review of George Venn, Soldier to Advocate: C.E.S. Wood’s 1877 Legacy (La Grande, OR: Wordcraft of Oregon, 2006), in Pacific Northwest Quarterly 98 (Winter 2006/2007).
- Review of Mike Vouri, Outpost of Empire: The Royal Marines and the Joint Occupation of San Juan Island (Seattle: Northwest Interpretive Association, 2004), in Pacific Northwest Quarterly 97 (Winter 2005/2006).

Fellowships and Awards:

- Daughters of the Pioneers of Washington (Seattle Chapter) Fellowship, 2006.
- J.C. Smith Fellowship – Department of History, University of Washington, 2006.
- Andy Studebaker Fund for Graduate Support – Department of History, University of Washington, 2005.
- Rear Admiral John D. Hayes Pre-Doctoral Fellowship – United States Department of the Navy, Naval Historical Center, 2004 – 2005.
- Rondeau Laverne Evans Dissertation Fellowship – Department of History, University of Washington, 2004 – 2005.
- Elizabeth Kerr Macfarlane Endowed Scholarship – College of Arts and Sciences, University of Washington, 2004 – 2005.
- John and Mary Ann Mangels Endowed Fellowship in Public History – Department of History, University of Washington, 2000 – 2001.
- J.C. Smith Fellowship – Department of History, University of Washington, 1999 – 2000
- President’s List – University of Limerick, Ireland, 1988 – 1989.

Presentations at Academic Conferences:

- “Alternative Visions of Security: Environmental Opposition to the Military Presence in the Puget Sound Region, 1968-84.” American Society for Environmental History Conference, Portland, Oregon (forthcoming, 2010).
- “Shaking Seattle to its Foundations’: The Federal Government, City Officials and Venereal Disease during World War II.” Western History Association Conference, Denver, 2009.
- “Global Connections and Dependencies: Puget Sound, the Federal Government and National Security in War and Peace.” Pacific Northwest History Conference, Corvallis, Oregon, 2008.
- “The Cold War and the Evolving Civilian-Military Relationship in the Puget Sound Region, 1950-1990.” Western History Association Conference, Oklahoma City, 2007.

- “Missiles or Picnics in Pugetopolis?: Conflicting Visions of Seattle's Fort Lawton in the 1960s.” American Society for Environmental History Conference, St. Paul, 2006.
- “‘Yes, but...’: Seattle’s Qualified Response to the U.S. Navy’s Homeport Plan of 1983-84.” Pacific Northwest History Conference, Boise, 2005
- “Controversy over the U.S. Navy’s Trident Submarine Base at Bangor, 1973-1982.” Pacific Northwest History Conference, Seattle, 2002.

Presentations on Pedagogy:

- “Promoting and Assessing Information Literacy in the U.S. History Survey,” Presentation (with Ann Ewel), Community College Workshop, Organization of American Historians’ annual meeting, Seattle, March 2009.
- Participant in panel on “Promoting History and Liberal Learning in Community Colleges,” American Association of Colleges and Universities’ annual meeting, Seattle, January 2009.
- Participant in panel on student assessment at the Community Colleges Humanities Association Conference, San Antonio, 2007.

Public Talks/Other Presentations:

- Lecturer for the annual Teachers’ Institute on Pacific Northwest History, Museum of History and Industry, Seattle, 2001-2009.
- Moderator for panel titled “War and Diplomacy in the Pacific Northwest” at the Pacific Northwest Historians’ Guild conference on the Civil War in the Pacific Northwest, March 2008.
- “The Evolution of the Security Consensus: Civilian-Military Relations in the Puget Sound Region, 1891-1984.” Lecture for the Pacific Northwest Historians’ Guild, Seattle, November 2007.
- Appeared on “The War: Stories from the Northwest: WWII,” documentary produced by KCTS TV (Seattle PBS affiliate), September 2007.
- “The Impact of World War II on the Puget Sound Area.” Interview with Steve Krueger on KPLU (NPR affiliate), 2005.
- “Partners on the Sound: Navy-Civilian Relations in the Puget Sound Region since 1891.” Distinguished Speaker Series, Naval Undersea Warfare Museum, Keyport, WA, 2005.

Workshops:

- National Endowment for the Humanities, Landmarks of American History Workshop, “Currents of History: The Columbia River and the Making of the West,” Portland State University, 2005.

Technical Skills:

- I am familiar with Microsoft Word and PowerPoint, website development software such as Frontpage, Camtasia screen capture software and learning management systems such as WebCT, Blackboard and Angel.

Service:

- Member, committee on faculty development funds, Social Sciences Division, Bellevue College, 2009.
- Member, review panel for proposals for Landmarks of American History workshops program, National Endowment for the Humanities, Washington, D.C., 2008.
- Member, working group on information and technological literacy, North Seattle Community College, 2007-2008.
- Member, oversight committee for on-campus tutoring centers, North Seattle Community College, 2007-2008.

- Consultant historian for “The War: Stories from the Northwest: WWII,” documentary produced by KCTS TV (Seattle PBS affiliate), September 2007.
- Judge for History Day competition, North Puget Sound Region, 2006.
- Mentor to new graduate students, Department of History, University of Washington, 2003 and 2004.
- Member of the organizing committee for the annual conference of the Pacific Northwest Historians’ Guild, 2003.
- Volunteer Researcher, Museum of History and Industry, Seattle, 1998.

Professional Affiliations:

- Organization of American Historians
- Western History Association
- American Society for Environmental History
- American Historical Association

References:

Available on request