Neuroscience for Kids - Drawing Contest Rules

1. Only one entry per person. Use the official entry form (copies of the form are acceptable) to draw a picture on the topic for your age group (see below). Drawings must be done by hand using pencils, pens, markers, and/or crayons.
2. Entries will be divided into four age groups.

If you are in...	Your picture should be about...
Kindergarten to Grade 2	→ My brain is important because _____...
Grade 3 to Grade 5	→ Brain Fitness: Ways to Keep Your Brain Healthy
Grade 6 to Grade 8	→ My brain is like a _____ because _____...
Grade 9 to Grade 12	→ How has brain research helped people?

3. To enter the drawing contest, mail your completed entry form with your drawing to:

Dr. Eric H. Chudler
Department of Anesthesiology
BOX 356540
University of Washington
Seattle, WA 98195-6540

4. Entries must be received by February 1, 2001 and cannot be returned.
5. People and their families associated with the Neuroscience for Kids web site are not eligible to enter the contest.
6. Drawings will be judged by the staff of Neuroscience for Kids on the basis of originality, scientific accuracy and overall design.
7. At least one winner from each group will be selected. Winners will be announced on March 1 and will be notified by e-mail or regular mail. The winner agrees to allow Neuroscience for Kids to publish his/her name and artwork on the Neuroscience for Kids web site. Winner addresses and e-mail addresses will NOT be published.
8. All materials received will become the property of Neuroscience for Kids and will not be returned. Neuroscience for Kids will not be held responsible for entries that are damaged or lost in the mail.
9. Winners will be awarded a book or CD-ROM related to the brain. These prizes include 101 Questions Your Brain Has Asked About Itself But Couldn't Answer Until Now by Faith Brynie, Brookfield: Millbrook Press, 1998; a set of books on the senses by Helen Frost, Mankato (MN): Pebble Books, 2000; Understanding Your Brain by R. Treays, Tulsa: Usborne Books, 1996; Journey into the Brain (CD-ROM) from Morphonix. Prizes will be mailed to the address listed on the winner's entry form.
10. Void where prohibited by law.
