

PLILIM

ISRAEL JOURNAL
OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Law and Politics

Foreword

Part I: Politics, Law and the Boundaries of Public Discourse

Leora Bilsky

Law and Politics: The Trial of Rabbin's Assassin

Eitan Barak

Under Cover of Darkness: Ten Year Game with Human Lives as "Bargaining Chips" and the Supreme Court

Alina Korn

Criminalization of Political Conflict: Crime Within the Israeli Arab Population in the Fifties

Part II: National Security, Politics, and Law

Mordechai Kremnitzer,

Keren Shapira-Ettinger

"Jerusalem Mix"

Gad Barzilai

Center Against Periphery: Law of "Prevention of Terrorism" Acts

Part III: Public Officials and Public Faith

Miriam Gur-Arie

Breach of Trust by Public and Elected Officials - Should it be a Criminal Offense?

Alon Brener

Political Pressures as Extortion

Yuval Karniel

Public Officers' Fraud and Breach of Trust

Part IV: Judicial Review and Politics

Leon Shelef

Impeachment of Judges and Trials of Politicians: A Narrative of American Legal History - In Two Parts

Daphne Barak-Erez

The Justiciability of Politics

Asher Maoz

The Boundaries of Justiciability: Parliament, Government, and Courts

Vol. 8

1999

The Buchmann Faculty of Law
Tel Aviv University