

Bill drafting exercise – part I

Start with the problem that was assigned or chosen by your group.
Working individually, answer each of these questions as completely as possible on this worksheet

A. What is the source of the problem?

B. How can it be solved (propose a specific policy)?

C. Who benefits and who loses if your proposed policy takes effect?

D. What don't you know that may impact whether your policy is effective?

E. What other positive or negative consequences may it have?

F. How will you fund it?

Bill drafting exercise - part II

As a group, work through the questions and share your responses.