Course Portfolios

DUE: Monday, Dec. 12th, 2:30 – 4:20 pm
WHERE: 305U Raitt Hall (Stecher-Hansen office)

Please include in a folder with pockets these materials in the following order:

1. ___ Two-page final “letter” to a distinguished mentor. Describe a new course, titled “OCCUPATION/RESISTANCE—Text and Testimony,” based on at least four of the texts studied this quarter and including no more than four of the countries studied. Your course description must be in the form of a narrative (not an outline) and argue for a new “order” or rationale for the course sequence. (Please indicate at the top of this essay, whether you are taking the course for W [writing] credit).

2. ___ Final version of the Research Paper (10 – 15 pages, doubled-spaced throughout, 1” margins, 12-point font), formatted according to MLA-guidelines, including a list of "Works Cited." Chicago Style is also acceptable. If you participated in the Nov. 30 workshop, you should attach the pink peer-edit worksheet to the back of your paper, but need not include the earlier draft of the paper.

3. ___ Four “letters” (preferably with my comments) [the fifth letter is optional].

4. ___ Four completed discussion sheets (available on course website)

5. ___ A large self-addressed, sturdy envelope.
   Or, you may choose to pick up your portfolio in my office during Winter quarter.

NO portfolios or research papers accepted as attachments to email.

Happy Holidays!
