

MARTIN LUTHER KING BOOKTALK

MICHAEL K. HONEY
in conversation with
CAMILLA BRAUTASET

Author MICHAEL K. HONEY is Fred and Dorothy Haley Professor of Humanities at the University of Washington Tacoma. He is an award-winning Martin Luther King scholar and labour historian and the author of several books on Martin Luther King.

He will discuss his latest book on Martin Luther King and economic justice in conversation with UiB Professor CAMILLA BRAUTASET. She is an economic and business historian with a broad interest in the processes of globalization, and former national editor of the Scandinavian Economic History Review.

TUESDAY 14 MAY 14:00

BERGEN GLOBAL
Jekteviksbakken 31