

Archy 325/525

Things you should know for the map quiz

1. Locations and definitions of the following regions and boundaries:

- Polynesia—East and West
- Micronesia
- Melanesia
- Near and remote Oceania
- Island Southeast Asia
- Austronesian speaking regions (general outline)
- Non-Austronesian speaking regions (in the Pacific; general outline)
- Sunda, Sahul and Wallacea
- Wallace's line (1863 version)
- Major islands or island groups including:
 - Hawaiian islands
 - Fijis
 - Marquesas
 - Solomons
 - Rapa Nui (Easter)
 - New Caledonia
 - New Britain
 - New Guinea
 - Java
 - Flores
 - Timor
 - Borneo

2. Location of the trade-wind and monsoon areas, and basic understanding of wind directions in those areas (and how they vary seasonally)

3. A general understanding of the ENSO system and local effects on various places in the Pacific and Island Southeast Asia

4. Be able to define and locate at least 1 example of a high island, an atoll, a makatea island, and a continental island

5. National boundaries of Malaysia, East Timor, Indonesia, Philippines, Papua New Guinea, Federated States of Micronesia

(see next page for a blank map to practice with)

