

Reading Reflection 1

Let's take this time to reflect on some "meta" ideas in the class now that we have completed the first exam. Choose one of the readings below in 200 to 300 words 1) summarize the authors main point(s) and 2) connect the main points with experiences (or lack of experiences) in your own life.

1. Read Henrich's blog post "I am so glad you made that mistake!": <http://blogs.ams.org/matheducation/2017/05/01/i-am-so-glad-you-made-that-mistake/#more-1656>
2. Read Devlin's Angle blog post "The math gift myth": <http://devlinsangle.blogspot.com/2017/05/the-math-gift-myth.html>
