Hello Prof. Sorensen.

My name is Yong Jae (John) Lim who is taking JSIS A 469 - North Korean Society - from you this quarter.

I am sending this email to contribute a couple of websites which might be really good for our class.

First one is about the event that will be held in Gowen Hall on this Saturday (1/16) from 1:30pm to 3:00pm.

It is about having a chance to talk with celebrity North Korean defector, Yeonmi Park, and hearing about the harrowing story of her escape from North Korea.

The further information is attached in here:

or

<https://www.facebook.com/events/448484955356148/>

The other one is about the Youtube link about the UN Security Council on North Korean human rights and Korean Ambassador, Joon Oh, contributes his final assertion on the human rights issues on the perspective of South Koreans in general.

The link is:

Thank you so much!

Yours sincerely,

John Lim
