

Print view of 'Learning in the Linguistics major'

Print this page

Question 1.

When did you declare your major?

Question 2.

What is your current level at UW?

- freshman
- sophomore
- junior
- senior
- fifth-year student

Question 3.

If you are a double (or triple) major, what are your other majors?

Question 4.

What languages have you studied (or are in the process of studying) to satisfy the requirements for your degree in Linguistics?

Question 5.

When do you anticipate graduating?

- within one or two quarters
- in about one year
- in about two years
- in about three years
- I don't know

Question 6.

What are your plans for after graduation?

Question 7.

Do you feel that your linguistics major is preparing you for what you plan to do after graduation?

Question 8.

Are you aware of the linguistics honors program?

- Yes. I'm in the linguistics honors program or intend to apply.
- No. I wasn't aware of it.
- Yes. I was aware of it but not interested in it.
- Yes. I was aware of it but not able to pursue it for scheduling reasons.

Question 9.

Which introductory course in linguistics did you take?

- LING 200
- LING 400
- ANTH 203
- ASIAN 401
- ENGL 370
- FREN 323
- GERMAN 451
- JAPAN 440
- SPAN 323
- SPHSC 303
- other class at institution other than UW
- I did not take an introductory course (this requirement was waived for me).

Question 10.

As you may know, the Linguistics Department has recently begun offering ASL classes. Would you like to see sign language linguistics more integrated in your linguistics classes?

- yes
- no, I'm not especially interested in sign languages
- no, there is already enough integration of signed and spoken language linguistics in my courses

Question 11.

What areas of linguistics have you been wanting to learn more about but have so far been unable to? Please also identify the reason: (a) subject not offered at UW; (b) scheduling conflict; (c) course full; (d) prerequisite(s) not completed; (e) wary of instructor; (f) other (please elaborate).

Question 12.

For the linguistics classes you have taken so far, was it clear what you were expected to learn in each class (i.e. what the learning goals for the course were)?

- 100% of my Linguistics classes have had clear learning goals.
- Most of my Linguistics classes have had clear learning goals.
- About half of my Linguistics classes have had clear learning goals.
- Few of my Linguistics classes have had clear learning goals.
- None of my Linguistics classes have had clear learning goals.

Question 13.

Rate the overall difficulty of the Linguistics major.

- courses are usually challenging for me
- core courses are usually challenging for me; electives are usually easy
- some courses (not necessarily core courses) are challenging for me; some are easy
- courses are usually easy for me

Question 14.

What advice would you give current or future Linguistics majors?

Questions or comments?
Contact us or email catalysthelp@uw.edu
