Announcements

August 1, Wednesday: Draft Poster Due

August 2, Thursday, 1-2 pm: End-User Roundtable (optional, but highly recommended); John Kemp, Disability Rights Activist

August 3, Friday, noon: UW Neurosurgery Lecture, Dr. Christine MacDonald - career development talk centered around interviewing skills, CV best practices, etc

August 8, Wednesday, noon: Final Poster Due

AUGUST 2018

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		July 31 TODAY	1 Poster Draft Due	2 End User Round-Table (1-2 pm)	3	4
5	6	7 Communications Class (9 am) Upgoer "Abstracts"	8 Final Poster Due (noon)	9	10	11
12	13 Abstract Due 200-350 words (3 pm)	14 Communications Class (9 am) "FIXED"	15 Research Symposium 9am-noon: Talks (5+2m) noon-1pm: Lunch 1-3 pm: Posters (1 hr ea) 3-3:30 pm: Evaluation	16	17 Last Day of Programs	18

Talk Slides Due (PPT), noon

Review

- Scientific Writing; Reference Managers

- Figures for Publication

- Scientific Posters

- Abstract Writing

- Speaking – Scientific Audience (Chet Moritz)

Communicating Science to the Public

Why?

When?

How?

- Friends and family
- Resumes and job interviews
- Grant applications and reviews
- Media
- Inspire, educate, mentor
- Encourage people to volunteer for research studies (informed consent)
- Informed public
- Why else?

Public Speaking: You be the Judge

Watch three videos and "score" the speakers on the content and delivery of their presentations.

Pay attention to:
*   Logical, fluid transitions and organization
*   Stories/examples to engage audience
*   Jargon?
*   Umms and Ahs?
*   Speed/Tone of voice
*   Eye Contact / Movement
*   Visuals
*   Use of pointer?

Public Speaking: You be the Judge

Speakers:

1. Hugh Herr
2. Kwabena Boahen
3. Daniel Wolpert