

I Saw You With His Lab Coat On

by Greg Crowther

1. You al - ways look sen - sa - tion - al at work;
don't want to in - fer too much too soon,
K m for me must be on the rise, but you e - ven match your gog - gles to your

'cause but you use his fume hood ev - 'ry af - ter - now I'm some - one whom you bare - ly re - cog - shirts. But to - day your choice of noon. Hey___ hon - ey, where ya nize. I've___ stu - died this con - clothes___ is___ one___ that I op pose,___ and I been?___ "Oh, I just___ went for a spin."___ But his di - tion... it's com - pe - ti - tive in - hi - bi - tion... and it's won - der where the de part - ment cha - ir has gone... cen - tri - fuge is___ what kept yo - ou so long...

wea - ken - ing the___ bonds that o - once were strong...

F G

now, ba by. - You've got to

C G

take it off now, ba by....

C F

[slow down] It's time for me to leave, Since your

Am F C

heart is on your sleeve, And my theo - ry that you love me must be wrong... Who - o - oah....

C G

F F6

'Cause I saw you with his

FMaj7 F6 C

lab coat on.