

Polski 402

Zima 2003

Kiedy i gdzie: Mon-Fri 1:30-2:20, Thomson Hall 217
Instruktor: Katarzyna Dziwirek
Biuro: Smith Hall M260
Godziny przyjęć: Wed, Fri 12:30-1:20
Telefon: 543-7691
e-mail: dziwirek@u.washington.edu

Course Materials:

Required:

Janowska, Aleksandra and Magdalena Pastuchowa, 1999. Dzień Dobry. Śląsk, Katowice, Poland.
Lechowicz, Joanna and Joanna Podsiadły. 2001. Ten, ta, to. Wing, Łódź, Poland.

Handouts on grammar and vocabulary topics available at:

<http://depts.washington.edu/slavweb/courses/polish/grammar/polishgrammar.htm>

Description of the course:

Polish 402 is the second class in a three-quarter course sequence of first year (beginning) Polish. Students should be familiar with the material covered in Polish 401 (first 19 chapters of Dzień Dobry). After the whole year's sequence the students should be able to be creative with the language at the sentence level, handle basic everyday life situations, read simple connected texts dealing with basic personal and social needs, write short letters, postcards, diary entries, take down simple notes (e.g. phone messages), etc. The goal is to move from Novice Low to Novice High/Intermediate Low on the ACTFL Proficiency Scale.

Key topics covered in Polish 402:

- I. Vocabulary: telling time, basic daily activities, days of the week, months, dates, verbs of motion, food and drink and meals, shopping and money
- II. Grammar: plural of nouns, locative case, dative case, adverbs, comparison of adjectives, aspect of verbs, past and future tenses

Course Requirements:

☺	Class Participation	very important!
✍	Homework	3 points each
✍	Diary (5 sentences or > a week, starting with Lesson 23, due Mondays)	10 points each
*
✍	Quizzes (Fridays)	10 points each
✍	Midterm	50 points
☺ & ✍	Final (oral + written)	50+150 points

PLEASE TYPE YOUR DIARIES!! Turn in a printout each week and at the end of the quarter email me all of them or turn them in on a disk AS ORIGINALLY WRITTEN.

Note: Dom Polski (1714 18th Ave, www.polishhome.org) is open Fridays from 7pm. This is a good place to practice your Polish! Koło Pań Domu Polskiego sponsors an award for the best student in May!

Seating Arrangement: If possible, please make an effort to sit next to a different person each day!