Part II.

Dear Mrs. Amburgy,

I know working with children is a joy to you, and I know you have done it for seventeen years. I would like to thank you for your dedication to the children of the Renton School District.

I am in charge of various recreational programs for the city of Renton. One I am most excited about is the drama program. It is an afterschool program that will meet once a week on Tuesdays from 4:30 to 5:30, for 10 weeks starting next month. This drama program will consist of play writing and presenting. We have twenty-five eager little aspiring actors signed up who cannot wait until next month. Last minute, the original director bailed out because of a better offer she received, so now the drama program and the children are left without a director.

The children who range from nine to twelve years old, have heard about the lack of a director and are extremely disappointed that the program might be canceled. All of the districts' in-school drama programs were cut due to a lack of budget three years ago and the children were so eager to jump back into it. This program needs a well established director as soon as possible!

When considering who would be best for the job, no one compared to your capabilities with kids. You are patient and energetic and would be perfect for the director position. The majority of the children have had you as a teacher throughout their early education and they even suggested for you to be director when they heard of the bad news.

You are extremely credible and the parents of these children would be grateful to continue having you work with their children, especially since it was hard for them to see you retire. They were not exactly excited of the option of the new P.E. teacher to be the director and even mandated a vote themselves. They see you as trustworthy and would be grateful to have you be a part of their children's lives once again.

You would receive a $100 token from the Renton Parks & Recreation Department for assuming responsibility for the entire program. Not only will you see the monetary benefit but you will bring even more joy to these children's lives.

I will be contacting you next Wednesday, if you want to get a hold of me before then contact me at my office. Cannot wait to hear from you.

Sincerely,
