This is the third one of the conference series on "Korea and the World Economy." Previous ones were held in Seoul, Korea (July 2002) and Seattle, USA (August 2003).

Economists, policy makers, and practitioners are invited to submit papers on Korea, Asia-Pacific, and the world economy. Both theoretical and empirical papers are welcome. Papers in the following areas are especially sought:

- Korean economy and its foreign trade and FDI
- the new multilateral round of the WTO and related trade issues
- inter-East-Asia and inter-Korea economic relations and cooperation
- FTAs and FDI, with special reference to Korea and its neighboring countries
- trade liberalization and regionalism in East Asia

For inquiries and submission of papers and abstracts:

Hyun-Hoon Lee, Department of Economics, Kangwon National University, Chuncheon 200-701, Korea. <hhlee@kangwon.ac.kr>

Kar-yiu Wong, Department of Economics, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 98195-3330, U. S. A. <karyiu@u.washington.edu>

Please submit no later than April 30, 2004 an abstract of 500 words or less, with paper presenter's name, plus the affiliations, mailing addresses, phone and fax numbers, and e-mail addresses of all co-authors. Submission via e-mail is preferred. Only papers in English will be considered.

Papers will be selected through a competitive peer review. Authors of selected papers will be informed around May 15, 2004.

A completed version for presentation of accepted papers will be due June 15, 2004. All papers presented at the conference will be considered for inclusion in a special volume of the Journal of the Korean Economy, the English journal of the Association of the Korean Economic Studies.

Anyone interested in discussing a paper or chairing a session, whether or not going to present a paper, please contact us and let us know.
